Paint Creek Folklore Society Proudly Presents a PAINT CREEK COMFY CONCERT featuring Randall Williams

Rich Warren (WFMT Chicago) says in Sing Out magazine, "Randall Williams explodes onto the scene like a bolt of lightning. It's rare that a honey-toned tenor carries as much force as Williams. Combine that voice with highly articulate guitar work and superlative songs for a most powerful presence.... The music hooks your ears while the contents catch your feelings." After graduating from the Royal Conservatory of Mons, Belgium at the head of his class, Randall Williams left the world of classical music for the world of traveling with his guitar, writing songs in train stations and sleeping on couches, then singing and playing on street corners, cafés, and pubs. Randall is as much at home in a Bangkok slum or a Senegalese village, at the Kennedy Center in D.C. or the Fine Arts Palace in Brussels sandwiched between a twitchy orchestra and a full house, or shoeless on the floor of your (our) living room. In addition to many great songs, Randall has written a book about his sailing adventures, and two Hal Leonard guitar instruction books on the use of partial capos. Come hear the music Randall has synthesized from his life of adventures. Check him out at <http://www.whereisrandall.com/>

Also Presenting ~ Parly Brothers

Partly Brothers are Luti Erbežnik and Brian Wood, two experienced folk/rock singer-songwriters whose music will relax and inspire you. With rich vocal harmonies and a blend of acoustic guitars, Partly Brothers craft beautiful catchy tunes woven of intriguing lyrics. They tell stories of experiences we've all had--the warmth of home, the exhilaration of love, loss of love, and hope, with themes ranging from old-fashioned rendezvous to Internet dating, pets' antics to ethnic pride. Originally from Yugoslavia, Luti infuses the duo with subtle sounds of Eastern European and Middle Eastern folk music. Michigan native Brian has played for many years with local group The Troubadads. Our own Maggie Ferguson (Live from the Living Room) says "magical indeed - Luti and Brian combine their voices so well that they might as well be brothers completely!" Their web site is
