

The Paint Creek Folklore Society

presents the

49th Annual Tin Whistle Concert

Back after a two-year hiatus due to COVID!

Larry, Jack and Maggie

A toe-tapping, harmonious blend of folky bluegrass performed by Larry Miller and Jack and Maggie Ferguson on banjo, guitar, and mandolin.

Morningstars & Tunesmiths

The Paint Creek Country Dance Orchestra plays a blast of delightful and energetic tunes, typical of our Starry Night for a Ramble contra and square dances and monthly PCFS Jams.

Peter Stephenson

Peter has been playing guitar since he was ten years old. He released his first CD 68 years later. He plays fingerstyle and likes unusual guitars.

Better Late Than Never

Jack and Theresa Erickson, and Phyllis Isabel perform songs you've heard and songs worth hearing; timeless tunes spiced with vocal harmony, guitar, mandolin and bass.

Harmony Express

Three seasoned musicians come together to bring joy through harmony, Julie Stitt, Adarsa Antares, Steve Mandell.

Kevin Tarnas

Kevin Tarnas is an award-winning professional guitarist, music educator and composer who focuses fingerstyle, classical and jazz guitar styles.

Tara

This Detroit-area Celtic band consists of Tom Dooley, Marilyn Hotaling and Sally Kilcullen. One of the group's recent highlights was its performance at the 2022 Detroit Highland Games.

A Word About Covid

We follow CDC guidelines for Oakland county from covidactnow.org, and will post that day's status at the venue entry. If the risk level is high (Red) or medium (Yellow), masks may be required and will be available (complimentary) at the door.

Sounds Great! Where is it?

University Presbyterian Church in Rochester Hills, 1385 S. Adams, on the east side between Hamlin and Avon Road. Parking is free. The hall is handicap-friendly and smoke-free. Great snacks & beverages will be available, as will CDs by the artists.
